need for Indian Medical Service, facing the legal issues and litigations, national board examination courses, foreign medical graduates, new PG draft regulations, CCIM notification and myxopathy.

Tamil Nadu has experienced torrential rains in the past few weeks and I appreciate our Government for taking the necessary relief measures to help the rain hit areas. As a contribution from our association, we have asked the local branches to provide medical relief to the needy.

Dear Friends and Colleagues

Greetings and best wishes from your President Elect. We all know that November is the month known for activities and enjoyment. After celebrating the festival of lights, Deepavali all are back to work with great enthusiasm. Heavy rain falls and high-speed wind has caused severe damage in Chennai and other parts of Tamil Nadu. We must extend our help in organising the medical camps wherever needed and other services whatever possible from the Branches.

Membership is a great challenge in our Association and let us unitedly work together to add more members.

The benefits of our two important schemes FSS and PPLSSS to be carried on to all the members in our regular monthly meetings and insist members to join the schemes. Inform the members about other wings of our Association, NHB, IMACGP, AMS and Paramedical and encourage them to join and utilise it wherever possible.

Covid 19 has come down to a greater extent and given us some relief and we have to thank and appreciate ourself for the efforts we have put in for helping and treating the public. The efforts taken by both Central and State Government are commendable for controlling the disease and for the massive vaccination. We have to be careful in our daily practice and to protect ourselves. Our aim must be to encourage our patients to take two doses of vaccination and to follow the guidelines of Government.

On October 30th and 31st the finals of the sports events IMA TNSB were conducted at Bharathiyar University grounds, Coimbatore and many Doctors from all over Tamil Nadu participated with enthusiasm. On 31st afternoon at 2 PM grand function was organised by State IMA and hosted by Coimbatore Branch at IMA Hall. The certificates of World record were presented for the Go Green project and our appreciation to the Sports Committee headed by Dr. Thirumavalavan and Team for achieving it. Medals, Trophies and Certificates were distributed to the winners of sports events.

Paramedical Convocation conducted on the same day and many students from all the institutions attended and received their graduation certificates. Thanks to State office and IMA Coimbatore Branch for all the arrangements.

IMA Erode Branch organised function to unveil the Statue of our former President of India APJ Abdul Kalam at IMAYAM campus. Grand function attended by many leaders of IMA and local leaders of other associations. Image building project IMA Erode Branch which has to be taken up by other Branches also.

Dear Seniors, Friends and Colleagues,

This month has been quite hectic preparing and planning for the incoming year. The accounts of the previous two years have been submitted to the finance standing committee and the state council meeting have been done in a regular and transparent manner with nil tax being paid for the previous two years.

The fact finding committee has submitted their reports in the last state council which is quite humongous but a crisp zist would be submitted in the upcoming meeting. We thank them for their time and laborious efforts over the past three years.

ENDING THE HIV EPIDEMIC

Equitable Access, Everyone's Voice

What to Know About HIV and COVID-19

People with HIV may have concerns and questions about COVID-19, including the risk of serious illness and vaccine safety. CDC will continue to provide updated information as it becomes available.

Are people with HIV at higher risk for COVID-19 than other people?

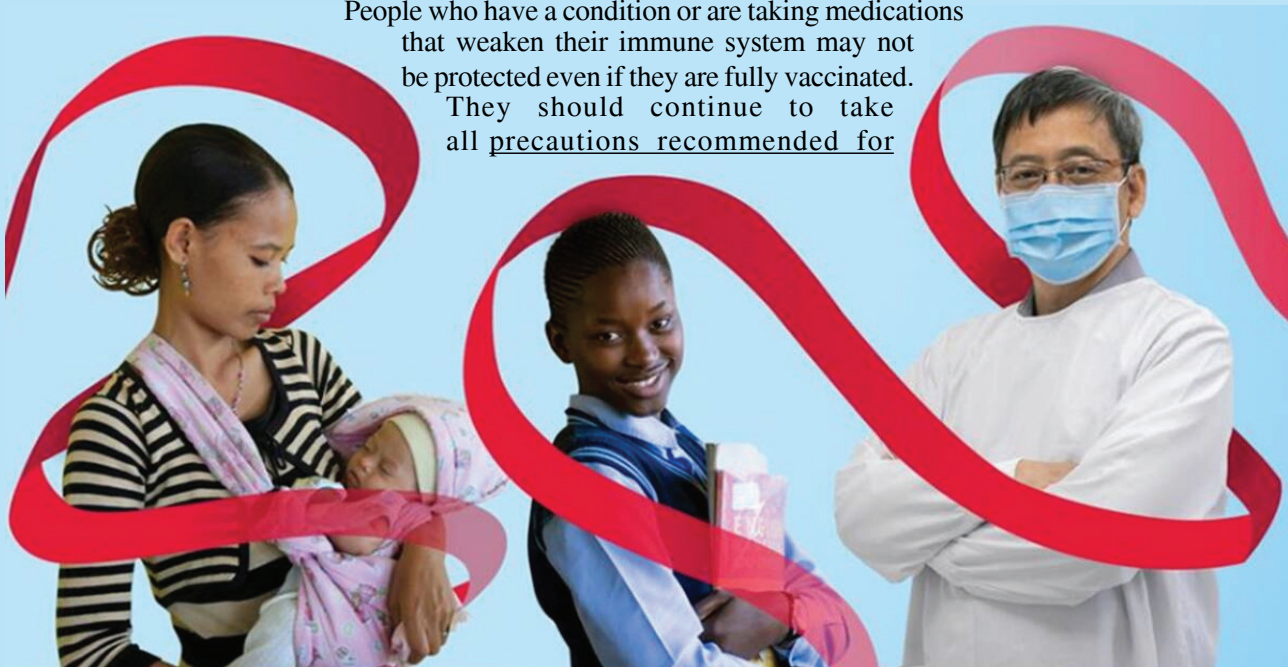

We are still learning about COVID-19 and how it affects people with HIV. Based on what we know at this time, people with HIV may be more likely to become severely ill from COVID-19.

Other factors can also make you more likely to become severely ill, such as age and certain underlying medical conditions. Older adults, people with certain medical conditions, and pregnant and recently pregnant people should take preventive actions (including getting vaccinated, wearing a mask, and practicing physical distancing) to protect themselves from getting COVID-19.

Are COVID-19 vaccines safe for people with HIV?

The U.S. vaccine safety system makes sure all vaccines are as safe as possible. People with HIV were included in clinical trials<sup>external icon</sup>external icon. COVID-19 vaccines have gone through the same safety tests and met the Food and Drug Administration's (FDA) rigorous scientific standards needed to support emergency use authorization. On August 23, 2021, the FDA granted full approval for Pfizer-BioNTech (Comirnaty) COVID-19 vaccine for people 16 years and older.

People who have a condition or are taking medications that weaken their immune system may not be protected even if they are fully vaccinated. They should continue to take all precautions recommended for unvaccinated people, including wearing a well-fitted mask, until advised otherwise by their healthcare provider.

If you have HIV and are at least 12 years old, you can get vaccinated if you have not had a severe or immediate allergic reaction to any of the vaccine ingredients. Learn about what to do if you are allergic to an ingredient in a COVID-19 vaccine.

To find a COVID-19 vaccine near you:

- Visit vaccines.gov,
- Text your ZIP code to 438829, or
- Call 1-800-232-0233.

Learn more about what CDC and other federal agencies are doing to make sure COVID-19 vaccines are safe and effective.

Do I Need an additional dose of the COVID-19 vaccine?

People who have advanced or untreated HIV may benefit from an additional dose of the COVID-19 vaccine to make sure they have enough protection against COVID-19.

If you have advanced or untreated HIV, CDC recommends that you receive an additional dose of the COVID-19 vaccine at least 28 days after your second dose of Pfizer-BioNTech or Moderna COVID-19 vaccine. Talk to your health care provider to determine if getting an additional dose is right for you.

If you received Johnson & Johnson's Janssen (J&J/Janssen) COVID-19 vaccine, you do not need an additional dose at this time. Currently, there is not enough data to determine whether receiving a second dose of the J&J/Janssen vaccine will provide additional protection against COVID-19.

You should also talk to your health care provider about the benefits of HIV treatment. People with HIV who take HIV medicine daily as prescribed can live long, healthy lives and protect their partners. In fact, people with HIV who get and keep an undetectable viral load (or stay virally suppressed) have effectively no risk of transmitting HIV to their sexual partners.

CDC does not recommend an additional dose of the COVID-19 vaccine for people with HIV who are virally suppressed or who do not have advanced HIV. Talk to your health care provider if you have more questions about the COVID-19 vaccine and to help you decide if you need an additional dose.

Will COVID-19 vaccines interfere with HIV medicine (antiretroviral therapy or ART) or pre-exposure prophylaxis (PrEP)?

Based on what we currently know about COVID-19 vaccines, no evidence suggests potential interactions with ART or PrEP. Learn more about the different COVID-19 vaccines.

What can people with HIV do to protect themselves from COVID-19?

If you have HIV and are taking your HIV medicine, it is important to continue your treatment and follow your health care provider's advice. This is the best way to keep your immune system healthy.

People with HIV can protect themselves from COVID-19 by taking these steps:

- Get a COVID-19 vaccine as soon as possible.
- Wear a mask that covers your nose and mouth.
- Stay 6 feet apart from others who don't live with you.
- Avoid crowds and poorly ventilated indoor spaces.
- Wash your hands often with soap and water.

Learn more about what you can do when you have been fully vaccinated.

If you have a weakened immune system, you may not be protected even if you are fully vaccinated. After vaccination, you should continue taking all everyday preventive actions recommended for unvaccinated people until advised otherwise by your health care provider. People with HIV should also continue to maintain a healthy lifestyle:

- Eat a healthy diet.
- Sleep at least 8 hours a night.
- Reduce stress as much as possible.
- Take your medicine as prescribed.

Staying healthy helps your immune system fight off infection should it occur.

What should I do if I think I might have COVID-19?

Nearly half of people in the United States with diagnosed HIV are ages 50 and older. People with HIV also have higher rates of certain underlying health conditions. Older age and underlying health conditions can make people with HIV more likely to become seriously ill if they get COVID-19. This is especially true for people with advanced HIV.

Call your health care provider if you develop symptoms that could be consistent with COVID-19.

Most vaccinated people have mild illness and can recover at home. If you think you have COVID-19 and have symptoms of illness, you should get tested.

It's important to continue taking your HIV medicine as prescribed. This will help keep your immune system healthy.

If you have severe symptoms, seek emergency medical care right away by calling 911. Call ahead to the emergency department and tell the operator that you may have COVID-19.

Learn more about COVID-19 and what to do if you get sick.

What else can people with HIV who are at higher risk of getting very sick from COVID-19 do to protect themselves?

Here are more steps that people with HIV can take:

- Make sure you have at least a 30- to 90-day supply of your HIV medicine and any other medicines or medical supplies you need for managing HIV. Ask your health care provider about getting your medicine by mail.

- Talk to your health care provider and make sure all your vaccinations are up to date, including vaccinations against seasonal influenza (flu) and bacterial pneumonia. These vaccine-preventable diseases affect people with HIV more than others.
- When possible, keep your medical appointments. Check with your health care provider about safety precautions for office visits and ask about telemedicine or remote clinical care options.
- People with HIV can sometimes be more likely than others to need extra help from friends, family, neighbors, community health workers, and others. If you become sick, make sure you stay in touch by phone or email with people who can help you.

Can HIV medicine (ART) be used to treat COVID-19?

Currently, treatment for COVID-19 is limited. Evidence does not show that any medicines used to treat HIV are effective against COVID-19. People with HIV should not switch their HIV medicine in an attempt to prevent or treat COVID-19.

Some clinical trials are looking at whether HIV medicines can treat COVID-19. Other trials are looking at the effectiveness of different drugs to treat COVID-19 in people with HIV. They are also looking to better understand how people with HIV manage COVID-19. You can learn more at ClinicalTrials.gov external icon.

What can everyone do to minimize stigma about COVID-19?

Minimizing stigma and misinformation about COVID-19 is very important. People with HIV have experience in dealing with stigma and can be allies in preventing COVID-19 stigma. Learn how you can reduce stigma and help prevent the spread of rumors about COVID-19.

International Day of Disabled Persons

3rd December, 2021

Building Back Better: toward a disability-inclusive, accessible and sustainable post COVID-19 World

Disability inclusion is an essential condition to upholding human rights, sustainable development, and peace and security. It is also central to the promise of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development to leave no one behind. The commitment to realizing the rights of persons with disabilities is not only a matter of justice; it is an investment in a common future.

The global crisis of COVID-19 is deepening pre-existing inequalities, exposing the extent of exclusion and highlighting that work on disability inclusion is imperative. People with disabilities—one billion people—are one of the most excluded groups in our society and are among the hardest hit in this crisis in terms of fatalities.

Even under normal circumstances, persons with disabilities are less likely to access health care, education, employment and to participate in the community. An integrated approach is required to ensure that persons with disabilities are not left behind.

Disability inclusion will result in a COVID19 response and recovery that better serves everyone, more fully suppressing the virus, as well as building back better. It will provide for more agile systems capable of responding to complex situations, reaching the furthest behind first.

This year, the International Day of Persons with Disabilities (IDPD) falls on the same week as the Conference of States Parties to the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities, 30 Nov.-1 and 3 Dec. 2020 and will be observed throughout the week in conjunction with the 13th session of the Conference of States Parties to the CRPD.

History

The annual observance of the International Day of Disabled Persons was proclaimed in 1992 by United Nations General Assembly resolution 47/3. It aims to promote the rights and well-being of persons with disabilities in all spheres of society and development, and to increase awareness of the situation of persons with disabilities in every aspect of political, social, economic and cultural life.

Building on many decades of UN's work in the field of disability, the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities (CRPD), adopted in 2006, has further advanced the rights and well-being of persons with disabilities in the implementation of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development and other international development frameworks, such as the Sendai Framework for Disaster Risk Reduction, the Charter on Inclusion of Persons with Disabilities in Humanitarian Action, the New Urban Agenda, and the Addis Ababa Action Agenda on Financing for Development.

The United Nations Disability Inclusion Strategy

When launching the United Nations Disability Inclusion Strategy in June 2019, the Secretary-General stated that the United Nations should lead by example and raise the Organization's standards and performance on disability inclusion—across all pillars of work, from headquarters to the field.

The United Nations Disability Inclusion Strategy provides the foundation for sustainable and transformative progress on disability inclusion through all pillars of the work of the United Nations. Through the Strategy, the United Nations system reaffirms that the full and complete realization of the human rights of all persons with disabilities is an inalienable, integral and indivisible part of all human rights and fundamental freedoms.

In recognition of this commitment, the Secretary-General submitted in October 2020, the first comprehensive report on steps taken by the United Nations system to mainstream disability inclusion and implement the Strategy since its launch. ■

Human Rights Day

10th December

Human Rights Day is observed every year on 10 December – the day on which the United Nations General Assembly adopted, in 1948, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

The Universal Declaration of Human Rights empowers us all. The principles enshrined in the Declaration are as relevant today as they were in 1948. We need to stand up for our own rights and those of others. We can take action in our own daily lives, to uphold the rights that protect us all and thereby promote the kinship of all human beings.

In December 1948, UNESCO was the first United Nations agency to place the Universal Declaration at the heart of all its action, to promote it across the world through education and the media.

Human rights gain new meaning when they become a reality in the daily life of every single person in the world. Bringing human rights home is at the core of UNESCO's mission in all its fields of competence – education, science, culture and communication. In the context of the commemoration of the 70th anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR), UNESCO brings to the fore the centrality of human rights protection in the history and the mandate of the Organization. ■

IMA NURSING HOME BOARD

Our Organisation for the past year has been trying many innovative and simple approach to collect the basic data of all our members Hospitals. These efforts are all in vain as our members are showing very poor response to the data collection initiative. The organisation has periodically tried to put forth the importance of data collection and it's benefits.

An organisation is only strong as long as its members are together. The basic details helps us to be in constant touch and also helps the organisation project itself as strong and organised. It enables the representatives to boldly and accurately formulate a defence and action plan for all it's requirements.

The recent break through in modification of pollution control board certificate validity period is an ace example of how quality data helped organisations lobby. Many pending queries that will hugely benefit us are being delayed for the simple fact of lack of quality data to prove we require these facilities. I urge all members who have yet to share their details to share the same as soon as possible. I thank all members who have already shared their data and I assure your data helped us achieve a meaningful change and progress in our organisation.

We once again humbly request you to share the required data accurately to achieve our organisations goals forward.

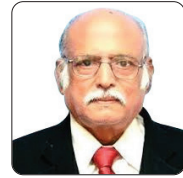

The required data has been sent to your registered email or directly sent to your institute in post. Please fill the same and sent to our email: imanhbtsnb@gmail.com for any query please call Ms. Ilakiya - +916382115029. ■

Dear Colleagues,
Greetings from
IMA TNSB CGP!

All the courses of IMA TNSB CGP were conducted very well even during the lockdown through Zoom. I have to appreciate the course Coordinators and Faculties who took special interest in making the classes creative and attractive to the students. Even we were able to conduct theory, practical and oral examinations via zoom. Of course, we had a few contact classes also for the benefit of the students in all possible ways. As a result, 133 students were passed and the details were as follows:

FCD 2020	= 25
FCD 2021	= 36
IDIC 2021	= 57
FCRM (Reproductive)	= 06

Also, we had our National Conference GPCON -2021 by our IMA CGP HQs hosted by IMA TNSB CGP by Hybrid platform on the theme “Diagnostic Medicine for the General Practitioners” on 21st Nov, 2021 at Hotel Green Park, Chennai, in the presence of Dr. J.A. In the afternoon, we had a CME on six topics which were delivered by eminent speakers and their specialities. All the topics were on Diagnostic medicines. In the evening, we had a convocation in which the 133 students who were passed in various courses were graduated. All the course Coordinators and Faculties were also honoured. We are happy that large numbers of doctors were empowered knowledge in various modalities of medicines through IMA TNSB CGP, who will definitely transform this to the community by giving them a very reasonable treatment in par with the recent developments. In future we plan to have CGP courses and training mainly through Zoom also in person certain situations.

Greetings!

The past two years had been a very tough period for our medical professionals and medical/paramedical education as well.

In spite of the pandemic restrictions with the sustained interest and efforts by our state President, Secretary and office bearers we were able to arrange online classes for the paramedical students. Practical classes were conducted in accordance with the Covid relaxation norms by Government.

Classes were conducted with all precautions taking into consideration the safety of the students.

Though the intake of students was less in the 2020-22 session due to pandemic, the strength regained in the 2021-22 session.

Once again we thank our President Secretary Finance Secretary and all state dignitaries for giving us an opportunity to work.

Also we thank our office staff for their support to the PMW. ■

 SOCIAL SECURITY
 SCHEME OF IMA TN

Legal Committee Chairman Dr.K.Thangamuthu has given a model letter which has to be sent to Honorable Prime Minister by Email – by all our IMA members individually.

94th Management Committee Meeting of PPLSSS –Which was scheduled on 14/11/2021 at Vellore was cancelled by state office in view of the monsoon - due to increased rain fall.

It is to express our views that nowadays, we get many number of Lawyer notices & Consumer Court notices after Corona pandemic–people started coming out.

In spite of PPLSSS’s detailed reply to Lawyer notices –they don’t get satisfied and going for District & State forums. Some times without any Lawyer notice people, directly go to Courts. Some times people sending complaints to Collector – CM cell – TN Medical Council – NMC – Human Rights Commission.....etc...

What ever the knowledge, professional efficiency, reputation, experience, everything is being staked by a single Lawyer notice or Court notice. Due to these litigations, our members are exposed to severe mental agony, harassment to profession and work, talented professional skills could not be tried – even reasonable risks could not be taken in needy patients.

First – it is high time that we should insist the Central Govt – to implement CPA 2019 with directions very clearly stating that ‘Health Sector’ is being removed from CPA. In this regard, our Second – on the other hand – IMA members should enroll in PPLSSS to defend any litigation in all means.

Third – gaining the confidence of the patient and relatives – is too much important. Talk... Talk...Talk... to the patient & attenders – at least few minutes – counseling - before going for any procedure or surgery –which avoids litigation partially.

Internal Auditing Committee inspection was held on 24.10.2021 by IAC Chairman Dr.M.Krishnamurthy, IAC member Dr.J.Senthil kumar – also visited by PPLSSS Chairman Dr.D.Chandrasekaran. Thanks for the appreciations & useful suggestions.

At JVL & Chetpet Guest Houses new Bed spreads, bed sheets, pillow covers received – Thanks to the past State President Dr.S.S.Sukumar – Erode, for the keen interest in getting the new linens – Thanks to the Trustee PPLSSS & past State President Dr.K.Prakasam for the right instructions. Unitedly we win.

With Fraternal Love!

Subject: Consensus Statement of Members of INDIAN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION Tamil Nadu State Branch doctors regarding exclusion of medical professionals from the Consumer Protection Act (CPA)

Respected Sir

The Consumer Protection Bill, 1986 was passed by both the Houses of Parliament and it received the assent of the President on 24th December 1986. It came on the Statutes Book as THE CONSUMER PROTECTION ACT, 1986 (68 of 1986). The Legislature while drafting the Bill, 1986 had specifically not included the services provided by the medical professionals in the term of services. Also, there is no mention of medical professionals, doctors, etc. anywhere in the Consumer Protection Act, 1986.

The fact that there is a distinction between a profession and an occupation was the main reason for not including the medical professionals under the purview of Consumer Protection Act, 1986. A person engaged in an occupation renders service, which falls within the ambit of Section 2(1)(o) of the Consumer Protection Act, 1986; however, the service rendered by a person belonging to a profession does not fall within the ambit of the said provision.

Accordingly, medical practitioners who belong to the medical profession are not covered under the Consumer Protection Act.

But, in the matter of “Indian Medical Association versus V P Shantha, AIR 1996 SC 550, the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India held that the Consumer Protection Act, 1986 is applicable to services rendered by doctors and hospitals. The Apex Court also held that the services rendered to a patient by a medical professional are “service” within the meaning of the Consumer Protection Act, 1986 and the persons who hire or avail such services are therefore, consumers as defined under the Act with the exception that where the doctor / hospital renders service free of charge to every patient or under a contract of personal service, a patient availing of such free of charge services will not be a consumer.

Consumer Protection Act, 2019: The Consumer Protection Bill, 2019 has been passed by both Houses of Parliament i.e. Lok Sabha (30th July 2019) and Rajya Sabha (6th August 2019). Thus, a new law on consumer protection has been enacted i.e. the Consumer Protection Act, 2019. The new act does not include services rendered by medical professionals.

Earlier, when amendments to the Consumer Protection Act were introduced in 2015, there was no mention of “healthcare” in the list of examples of as to what constitutes “service”. The Bill said “service” means service of any description made available to potential users and includes, but is not limited to, the provision of facilities relating to banking, financing, insurance, transport, processing, supply of electrical or other energy, telecom, board or lodging or both, housing construction, entertainment, amusement or the purveying of news or other information. It does not include the rendering of any service free of charge or under a contract of personal service.

The Bill had gone through the parliamentary committee. But in 2019, when the new Consumer Protection Bill was introduced in the Lok Sabha, “healthcare” was included in the list after telecom. But later “Healthcare” was removed from the list of services which had been specifically mentioned earlier under the definition of services in the draft Consumer Protection Bill.

Now, in the new Act of 2019, the terms “medical profession”, “Healthcare”, “doctors”, etc. are not mentioned.

Legislative intent

While enacting both the Consumer Protection Act, 1986 and Consumer Protection Act, 2019, the draftsmen of the Legislature had specifically and intentionally not included the services rendered by medical professionals. In 2019, when the new bill was presented, the term “healthcare” was included in the draft of the Consumer Protection Bill; however, the same was later removed from the Bill.

Even though, the landmark precedents as laid down by the Hon’ble Supreme Court of India cover the medical profession/healthcare under the purview of Consumer Protection Act, the Legislature never intended to cover the services rendered by the medical professionals under Consumer Protection Act. It is also to mention that medical professional services are not covered under GST.

Lawyers do not come under the purview of Consumer Protection Act

In the matter titled as “D. K. Gandhi versus M. Mathias”, the State Commission of Consumer Disputes Redressal Forum, Delhi, held that services rendered by a Lawyer would not come within the ambit of Section 2(1)(o) of the Consumer Protection Act, 1986, as the client executes the power of attorney authorizing the Counsel to do certain acts on his behalf and there is no term of contract as to the liability of the lawyer in case he fails to do any such act. The State Commission held that it is a unilateral contract executed by the client giving authority to the lawyer to appear and represent the matter on his behalf without any specific assurance or undertaking.

However, this verdict of the State Commission was reversed by the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission (NCDRC) in the Revision Petition titled as D. K. Gandhi versus M. Mathias on the ground that lawyers are rendering a service. They are charging fees. It is not a contract of personal service and that there was no reason to hold that they are not covered by the provisions of the Consumer Protection Act, 1986. It was held that though a Lawyer may not be responsible for the favourable outcome of a case as the result/outcome does not depend upon only on lawyers' work, but, if there was deficiency in rendering services promised, for which consideration in the form of fee is received by him, then the lawyers can be proceeded against under the Consumer Protection Act.

However, the said judgement of the NCDRC has now been stayed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the matter titled as "Bar of Indian Lawyers vs. D. K. Gandhi". The said case is still pending adjudication before the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India.

Thus, the question whether the lawyers are covered under the Consumer Protection Act or not is still pending before the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India. However, as on date, the lawyers do not come under the purview of Consumer Protection Act.
